

TERRAMIA

Piergiorgio Castellani

The Terramia ("my land") wines are selected and blended in collaboration with Piergiorgio Castellani, last generation of the notorious family of great Tuscan winemakers.

Piergiorgio guaranty a large experience in selecting and sourcing the best grapes from the most renowned Italian production zone and has being acclaimed by the most important international magazine as " the winemaker that is on quest to find the roots of his grapes and bring to light what International viticulture risk to losing"

CHIANTI

"TERRAMIA" (Tha-rrah-mee-ah) means "my land". Terramia winery is located in the center of Italy, in one of the best wine production regions of the entire world - Tuscany.

Our Chianti is handcrafted from grapes carefully grown on selected hillside vineyards. It is a smooth, cherry flavoured red wine with a supple, lingering taste."

Piergiorgio Castellani, winemaker

Sangiovese grapes

REGION / LOCATION Toscana

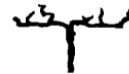

ALTITUDE

80-200 meters

VINE DENSITY

5500 vines/hectares

VINE TRAINING

cordon spur

SOIL

calcareous, clayey

GRAPE VARIETIES

85% Sangiovese
10% Canaiolo
5% Cilieggiolo

ALCOHOL

12.5% by vol.

ACIDITY

5.50 g/L

VINIFICATION

Temp-controlled tanks
Prolonged maceration
with the skins

PRODUCTION QUANTITY

250,000 bottles

Imported by Vinum International, Napa, CA