

TERRAMIA

Piergiorgio Castellani

The Terramia ("my land") wines are selected and blended in collaboration with Piergiorgio Castellani, last generation of the notorious family of great Tuscan winemakers.

Piergiorgio guaranty a large experience in selecting and sourcing the best grapes from the most renowned Italian production zone and has being acclaimed by the most important international magazine as " the winemaker that is on quest to find the roots of his grapes and bring to light what International viticulture risk to losing"

Herald INTERNATIONAL Tribune

MONTEPULCIANO D'ABRUZZO

"TERRAMIA (Tha-rrah-mee-ah) means "my land". Terramia winery is located in the center of Italy, in one of the best wine production regions of the entire world.

Our Montepulciano is handcrafted in order to express the spicy and bright character of this popular Italian varietal rich of plum and dark cherry notes."

Piergiorgio Castellani, winemaker

A stylized signature of Piergiorgio Castellani in black ink.

Montepulciano grapes

REGION / LOCATION Abruzzo

ALTITUDE

100-200 meters

VINE DENSITY

5500 vines/hectares

VINE TRAINING

cordon spur

SOIL

sandy, tufaceous

GRAPE VARIETIES

100% Montepulciano

ALCOHOL

12% by vol.

ACIDITY

5.60 g/L

VINIFICATION

Temp-controlled tanks
Prolonged maceration
with the skins

PRODUCTION QUANTITY

150,000 bottles

Imported by Vinum International, Napa, CA