We are proud to mention that within the Malbec category only 3 wines received Gold Medals, among which the Filus Reserva is the only Argentine Malbec.

The SFIWC is the largest and most prestigious competition in America, which delivers awards after examining wines from 26 US states and 21 countries in three days.

Forty-five wine industry professionals from throughout the United States convened June 19th, 20th and 21st to taste, score and rank 4,274 wines from 1,195 wineries.

The medal count included 148 Double Gold, 245 Gold, 1,150 Silver and 1,514 Bronze.
